As the parenting coordinator, my role is to assist the parent(s) in resolving parental conflict in a manner that is beneficial to the child or children. These services may have been enlisted voluntarily or may have been stipulated by court order. I also assist the parent(s) in the organization and problem solving of issues relating to their divorce and separation. In my role as parenting coordinator I am an advocate of the children, strive to be unbiased, but I am not neutral.

The parent(s) who are named above have signed an agreement with me stating their understanding of the following.

LEGAL ADVICE - As the Parenting Coordinator I do NOT provide legal advice and I am not an Attorney. It has been strongly recommended for the parents to obtain legal counsel and are requested to advise and consult with legal counsel on all aspects regarding any issues we discuss.

THERAPY - As the Parenting Coordinator I do NOT provide therapy and I am not a therapist. As issues are discussed with the parent, it may be recommended for the parent to seek services from a Psychologist, or other Licensed Professional.

REPORTING and CONFIDENTIALITY - Throughout the process of parent coordination, I will be providing regular written summary reports describing the nature of conflicts discussed and recommended solutions. Copies of the reports will be given to the parent(s) as well as send to their attorneys. Because written reports are being issued, it is understood that this is NOT a confidential process.

RELEASES - It is understood that unless otherwise stated, all therapists involved, attorneys involved and previous or current evaluators are authorized to release information directly to me, subject to attorney-client privileges. It is expected that for the children's benefit, I will have direct access to all therapists, attorneys, Guardian ad litem, custody evaluators, school personnel or other professionals involved in the divorce and parenting of the children.
